Dated: 7-9-2019

Subject: The Haryana Prohibition of Ragging in Educational Institution Ordinance, 2012 – regarding Kindly refer to the subject noted above.

In this connection, it is intimated that ragging in campuses has become a terrible menace transgressing the rights and dignity of students at times resulting in ugly and shocking incidences. Hon’ble Supreme Court has also passed a judgment in University of Kerala Vs. Council, Principals, Colleges, Kerala & others with the direction that the State Governments shall take adequate measures for prevention and prohibition of ragging.

With the intention to ban ragging in all academic institutions, whether public or private, the State Govt. of Haryana has notified “The Haryana Prohibition of Ragging in Educational Institution Ordinance, 2012”. The Ordinance prohibits ragging in any form within or outside the premises of an educational institution. The overall responsibility for enforcement of the Ordinance rests with the Head of the Institution and failure to enforce the Ordinance may attract imprisonment for a term which may extend up to six months and with fine which may extend up to twenty-five thousand rupees. The students/parents are required to furnish an affidavit at the time of admission undertaking not to indulge in ragging. Any student found guilty of ragging will be compulsorily suspended for one year or two semesters as the case may be in addition to other punishments that the Head of the Institution may impose. In case the act of ragging constitutes a criminal offence as defined under Indian Penal Code 1860 (45 of 1860), the Head is also obligated to get an FIR lodged with the Police.

A copy of the Haryana Prohibition of Ragging in Educational Institutions Ordinance, 2012 and proforma’s for affidavit to be submitted by the students/parents at the time of admission is hereby attached.

It is for kind information & necessary action, please.
